

PLATFORM AND SERVICES.

Platform is an internet-based platform that facilitates remote notarization services by utilizing audio-video technology for the benefit of End Users.

RESTRICTIONS.

You may only use the Platform and Services pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. You

ACCOUNTS.

To use the Platform, you must create an End User account in accordance with the Order Form and Platform instructions. You may not create more than one End User account or use another End User's account. If you do not wish to provide the information required by the Platform to create an End User account, you can cancel account creation by closing the web browser window, and the information you entered will not be retained on the Platform.

CONFIDENTIALITY.

5.1. Each party agrees to regard and preserve as confidential all non-public information provided by the other party relating to the business, systems, operations, strategic plans, clients, pricing (including, but not limited to, the pricing terms herein), methods, processes, financial data, programs, and/or products of the other party in any form, that are designated as "confidential," or a reasonable person knows or reasonably

DISCLAIMER

5.1. Each party agrees to regard and preserve as confidential all non-public information provided by the other party relating to the business, systems, operations, strategic plans, clients, pricing (including, but not limited to, the pricing terms herein), methods, processes, financial data, programs, and/or products of the other party in any form, that are designated as "confidential," or a reasonable person knows or reasonably